Roles BUILT FOR ME

Hope Reed (20- 25) brave, thoughtful, determined. For a foster kid a few years out of the system, life was okay. College was going alright, work was crappy, her sisters were alive and safe, but hey nothing's easy. That was until an old case is reopened and Hope finds herself on trial and forced to relive her worst memories. Will anyone believe her this time? If she's learned anything the past decade it's that strength is a choice, but at what price?

Alicia Debnam-Carey, Kaitlyn Dever

Sarah Walker (17-18) popular, intelligent, fragile. No one ever would have guessed that the school's new banksy protégé was Sarah. She was on student council, dance team, and had a 4.0.

But something snapped when her best friend died last summer. The mysterious graffiti was beginning to make local news. No one would ever figure it out, and by the time they did the year would be over. Right? Wrong. Caught in the thick of grief, Sarah learns what it takes to live and love again.

Katherine Langford, Shailene Woodly

Melanie Van Doren (25-28) Classic, fierce, witty, it girl. She has the perfect life, fully funded with all of daddy's money. What more could a girl want? Funny you should ask... Secrets built her castle, but truth just walked through the front door, and (mic drop) he isn't an ugly duckling anymore. Stuck with the war between her heart and her ambitions, Mel is finally priced out of her own kingdom.

Lily Collins, Lucy Hale.
